

Common Reach Forklift HTF15—HTF25

Hyder reach forklift

Driving AC Motor

System sets three types no-load speed models: Super, Common and Economic. The set speeds are 11km/h, 9km/h and 6km/h separately. The system can adjust parameter like driving speed, driving accelerated speed, braking based on customers' actual demands without affecting the grade ability performance;

Instrument

The latest CURTIS electric forklift instrument customized specially for HYDER LIFT. Information like speed, working hours, electricity left, fault codes and warning lamp are displayed on this instrument;

Handheld instrument (optional)

The updated instrument model 1313-4401 features in reading more information on the battery voltage , signals of acceleration and directions , current and historical faults ,motor currenacy and makes the aim of checking the current forklift state more conveniently become true. Moreover, the updated instruments equipped with many additional functions, which would be offered by HYDER LIFT as well as detailed technical support if clients or agents require.;

Product link : <http://www.cnhyder.com/?p=403>